

SOUTHEAST & LIMESTONE COAST

Let's be honest it is a bit of a drive but the Southeast region of South Australia, including the Limestone Coast is stunning and very much worth the drive. It's also on the way to Victoria, so take the extra day or two on your way through and explore the region. From an arts and culture perspective you will enjoy some incredible offerings from some of the state's best regional galleries, local creatives and nationally and internationally recognised artists.

2. Wind Dance – Augmented Reality Mural, Kingston SE

Corner of Agnes and Charles Streets, Kingston, Meintangk Country

Open daylight hours

Whilst in the Southeast don't miss a chance to check out a unique public artwork, Wind Dance – it is an augmented reality mural that needs to be seen to be believed. Created in 2020 by South Australian artist Sarah Boese. The work is stunning and one of few augmented reality artworks you can see in Australia. It features flora and fauna significant to the region including the Heron, which is a spiritual totem of the local First Nations people. Visitors can download the "EyeJack" app onto their device (phone or iPad) and use it to see the gorgeous images featured in the artwork, literally come alive!
