

BAROSSA & ADELAIDE PLAINS

Let's face it, there is a lot to do in the Barossa and Adelaide Plains region – particularly if you like wine! But if you are like most people, in between cellar doors, you want to get a more cultured feel for the people and the place. Great art goes hand-in-hand with good wine, and Barossa, Adelaide Plains has plenty to offer – all of which is just a short drive from Adelaide. You can start in Gawler, meander through the Barossa Valley and end the weekend with a stopover at the historic township of Kapunda – enjoying their murals and the Kapunda Regional Gallery.
